

Removable anatomical rooted teeth model

- 2 colored anatomical rooted teeth model with soft gum. Teeth are removable.
- For study of tooth anatomy
 - For demonstration of brushing and dental flossing
 - For training of dental plaque removal (Dental plaque is applicable upon request)
 - For demonstration of malocclusion and tooth missing cases utilizing soft gum.

ANA28F-LA01 (Translucent Gingivae)

Suitable tool for observing the movement of instrument. Especially for subgingival scaling and root planing

ANA28F-LA02 (Pink colored gingivae)

Teeth are easily removable and put back in soft gum. Practical training to learn tooth anatomy, occlusion, root shape, etc. by using an actual model.

Patient education by utilizing soft gum

Demonstration of malocclusion case

Demonstration of narrow upper arch

Demonstration of tooth inclination occurred by tooth missing.

Self-locking device attached to the articulator works very efficiently with a desk or a chair mounting unit.

Two colored teeth are duplicated from natural teeth.

ADEM is an Advanced Dental Education Module used for dental manikin training.

For further inquiry:

TEL: +81-75-256-3015 FAX: +81-75-221-8032

<http://www.trimunt.co.jp/>